

General Information – The Great Eastern Fly-In - Jan 12 -13 - 2019 Where The Sky Meets The Sea

Welcome to the 2019 Great Eastern Fly-In. Here are details which we hope assist you, have a great time.

- Free Entry to Aerodrome site.
Donations on entry welcome for Charity of the Year and running the Fly-In.
- Open 7.30 am - Saturday and Sunday.
Friday, aircraft arriving so you're welcome to come and watch.
- Parking on site - Free. You'll be directed to parking areas by people and signs. Disabled Parking.
- Pedestrian access – via Pedestrian Gateway at Main Entrance.
- Access - General

The Great Eastern site is a working airfield and as such has uneven ground throughout the area, of varying surfaces (grass, gravel, concrete, tar). This may pose challenges for some people and we've made every effort to have the site as accessible as possible. If you have any particular needs please contact us and we will see if we can assist. Please stay behind all fencing and barriers at all times.

- Fly-In Aircraft
Many types of aircraft will be flying in to attend over the weekend: GA, recreational, ultralights, warbirds, motorgliders, helicopters, Paramotor, gyros, twins, vintage, bi-planes, aerobatic and a great model aircraft static display. Chat to the pilots, check out the aircraft!

What to See and Do

- Air Displays

Air Displays run intermittently on Saturday and Sunday. We are lucky to have some of Australia's top aerobatic and display pilots flying a range of aircraft. Displays are varied, aerobatic, formation flying and more. See the WW11 Memorial Flypast with a Squadron of Warbirds, , T28 Trojan, P51 Mustangs, RAAF Winjeels, CT 4, Harvards and more.

- Air Display Programme – Download available from mid December and in the Northern Star Newspaper – Saturday before the Fly-In.
